

It is definitely a burden to have one VRS provider. By having a system where all VRS providers are "interoperable" through one device would lessen the stress among us Deaf and Hard of Hearing users. Why can't we have equal access like the hearing people with making calls?